

The Dolphin

Verse: Am, Em, G, Dm9 (or D7?)

Chorus: C, Em, Am

Swimming along in the deep blue sea
I see a man say hello to me
He is with all his friends and foes
And speaks a language I don't know

Chorus:

Say hello with the language of your heart

Let go the anger in your face
Put the tools of hate in my grave
Don't make this mistake be brave

I slowly swim around his boat
And see his blood red stained coat
I hear my friends scream out in pain
My attempts to help them are in vain

Repeat chorus

Now I am swimming along in a red sea
My friends are dying and bump into me
I feel a pain from my head to my fin
And out the water all the men start to grin

Repeat chorus

Now I am dying my thoughts have changed
I see monsters happily inflict pain
I want them to see what is like to be

When you're dying.
